AND REGARDING Jung Park

INTERIM ORDER TO SUSPEND LICENCE
and
NOTICE OF PROPOSAL TO REVOKE LICENCE
and
NOTICE OF PROPOSAL TO IMPOSE ADMINISTRATIVE MONETARY PENALTY

Jung Park ("JP") was issued a mortgage brokerage license on June 16, 2008 under the Act.

INTERIM ORDER TO SUSPEND LICENCE

Section 19(1) of the Act provides that the Superintendent of Financial Services ("Superintendent") may, in appropriate circumstances, revoke a mortgage brokerage licence. Section 21 of the Act provides that where the Superintendent proposes to revoke a licence, the Superintendent shall give written notice of the proposal to the mortgage brokerage, including reasons for the proposal. A notice of proposal to revoke JP's licence is set out below.

Section 19(3) of the Act provides that, if in the Superintendent's opinion the interests of the public may be adversely affected by any delay in the revocation of a licence as result of the steps required by section 21, the Superintendent may, without notice, make an interim order suspending the licence and may do so before or after giving the notice required by section 21.

In the Superintendent's opinion, the interests of the public may be adversely affected by any delay in the revocation of JP's licence for the following reasons:

1. Mortgage brokerages are required to have errors and omissions ("E&O") insurance pursuant to section 7(4) of the Act and section 42 of Regulation 188/08;
2. The Superintendent has approved a number of insurers for providing E&O coverage to brokerages under the Act. The list can be found at:
http://www.fSCO.gov.on.ca/english/licensing/MB_EOinsurance.asp;
3. The Superintendent conducted an audit and found that JP does not have E&O coverage from one of the approved providers;

4. The Superintendent requested further information from JP regarding JP's E&O coverage in light of the Superintendent's findings as follows. All contacts with the brokerage or its representatives were to an email address and a mailing address provided by the brokerage or its representatives and on file:
 - a. By email sent on November 26, 2008. The email stated that an email response was required by December 3, 2008. The response was to include a detailed explanation of the reasons for the lack of E&O coverage; supporting insurance or other documentation, if any; and the amount of business conducted by the brokerage since July 1, 2008;
 - b. By registered letter dated December 12, 2008. The letter stated that a written response was required by December 31, 2008. The letter also indicated that the response must include the information set out in the preceding paragraph;
5. A representative of the brokerage contacted the Financial Services Commission of Ontario ("FSCO") in response to the registered letter dated December 12, 2008 and indicated that the brokerage wished to surrender its brokerage licence;
6. By letter sent on January 16, 2009, the Superintendent provided a declaration of surrender and information regarding licence surrender to JP;
7. JP has not provided the response required by the above communication;
8. JP does not have the required E&O insurance and has thereby contravened a requirement established under the Act;
9. E&O insurance is a statutorily-mandated measure to protect the public against potential errors and omissions committed by a brokerage and its brokers and agents. The absence of E&O insurance during any period in time puts the public directly at risk of not being able to recover for losses arising from errors and omissions occurring during that period;
10. As long as the licence is not suspended, JP continues to be authorized to deal or trade in mortgages with the public;
11. Accordingly, the Superintendent is of the opinion that the public is at risk and will continue to be at risk until JP's licence is suspended or JP obtains E&O insurance;
12. Further, the Superintendent has reasonable grounds to believe that JP is no longer suitable to be licensed, because the brokerage's past conduct shows the brokerage to be ungovernable. Failure to respond to the regulator is a breach of the Act and demonstrates ungovernability;
13. For all of the above reasons, the Superintendent is of the opinion a delay in the revocation of JP's licence would adversely affect the public interest.

ORDER

It is ordered that Jung Park's licence is immediately suspended, pursuant to section 19(3) of the Act.

During the suspension JP is not authorized to carry on the business of dealing in mortgages in Ontario or in the business of trading on mortgages in Ontario, to deal in mortgages in Ontario or trade in mortgages in Ontario.

Pursuant to section 17(3)(b) of the Act, the licences of all mortgage brokers and agents authorized by JP to deal in mortgages or trade in mortgages on its behalf are also suspended.

The Interim Order takes effect immediately and will remain in effect until the expiry of the period for requesting a hearing about the Superintendent's Notice of Proposal (15 days after the Notice is received, or deemed to have been received). If JP requests a hearing before the Financial Services Tribunal ("Tribunal"), the Superintendent may extend the interim order until the proposal is finally determined.

Pursuant to sections 48(4) and 49(1) and (2) of the Act, every person who fails to comply with an order made under this Act is guilty of an offence and every individual convicted of an offence under the Act is liable to a fine of not more than $100,000 or imprisonment for a term of not more than a year or both a fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE OF PROPOSAL TO REVOKE LICENCE

TAKE NOTICE THAT pursuant to sections 19 and 21 of the Act, the Superintendent is proposing to revoke JP's mortgage brokerage licence, because JP is contravening or failing, or has contravened or failed, to comply with the requirement to maintain E&O insurance in a form approved by the Superintendent. The Superintendent also believes that JP is no longer suitable to be licensed because the past conduct of Jung Park, the proprietor of JP, affords reasonable grounds for the belief that the business of the brokerage will not be carried on in accordance with the law and with integrity and honesty; and because Jung Park, the proprietor of JP, made a false statement or provided false information to the Superintendent with respect to the brokerage's application for a licence. The reasons for the proposal to revoke the licence will be served with this Notice.

AND TAKE NOTICE THAT section 21(3) of the Act provides that the mortgage brokerage may request a hearing before the Tribunal in respect of this Notice within 15 days after this Notice is received, or deemed to have been received. The details of the contravention or failure to comply will be served with this Notice.
