

Learn how pension legislation changes may affect you

Don't wait until retirement to learn more about your employee pension plan, say advisors in this field. To prepare wisely for the future it's important to know all of the details, terms, and facts.

In June 2012, a number of changes were announced to the Ontario Pension Benefits Act. As the regulator of registered pension plans in Ontario, the Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO) has up-to-date information to keep you abreast of changes to the pension laws and the impact on the retirement income system and your pension plan.

For detailed information on the changes which came into effect on July 1, 2012, and how they could affect you, visit FSCO's website www.fSCO.gov.on.ca.
