Staff have found the practice of incorporating the actuarial report or cost certificate of several plans of the same sponsor under one report difficult for monitoring purposes.

Therefore, effective for review dates on or after January 1, 1992 separate actuarial reports and cost certificates must be prepared and filed for each registered pension plan. The reporting period must be clearly indicated.